Nevada HAND Welcomes Ryan Nolan as Vice President of Construction

Assumes Key Role in the Nonprofit Affordable Housing Developer's Leadership

LAS VEGAS, NV – Nevada HAND Inc., the state's largest affordable housing developer and a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ryan Nolan as Vice President of Constuction. In this role, Ryan will lead Nevada HAND's residential projects, including bids, budgets, field operations, safety and compliance, subcontractor relationships, project milestones, and personnel management.

Ryan brings more than 15 years of experience in construction, project management, and maintenance to his new position. He joined Nevada HAND in 2017 as Assistant Project Manager for HAND Construction, and quickly rose through the ranks to become Project Manager and Director of Maintenance and Safety in 2021. His dedication and leadership skills have made him a valuable asset to the organization.

Prior to joining Nevada HAND, Ryan served in the United States Air Force as the HMU Training Manager and led engine maintenance teams on combat search and rescue helicopters. He earned his Master of Science in Project Management from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from DeSales University, and his Associate's degree from the Community College of the Air Force.

About Nevada HAND

Nevada HAND is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and we are the state's leader in affordable housing and neighborhood development. Since 1993, Nevada HAND has remained dedicated to the development, construction, management, and preservation of high-quality, affordable homes enhanced by life-enriching Resident Services for low-income families and seniors. With 35 affordable communities in Southern Nevada, including the only two affordable assisted living facilities in the state, Nevada HAND serves more than 8,000 seniors and families every day. Through Resident Services, we provide tools and support needed for seniors to live more independent and satisfying lives and for families to enhance their prospects for the future. Our affordable apartment communities and supportive onsite Resident Services improve health outcomes, strengthen opportunities for future success, and increase the economic viability of Southern Nevada.
